

Jean Wagner ND Presents:

Natural Health for Children

Come for information on using natural methods to help the little ones in your life become healthy and stay healthy. All ages will be covered from pregnancy to the teenage years.

Our children and other young ones in our lives bring us so much love, and we want the best for them. Come learn how to optimize their health for happy, healthy kids!

Topics will include:

Prenatal nutrition

Nutrition for the first years

Nutrition for the pre-teen and teenager

Homeopathy for children

Herbal Remedies for children

Common health problems of children, teenagers and natural methods to address these problem areas.

Come join us February 8, 2012 at 7pm at the Orion Public Library at 825 Joslyn Rd..
